| #1  | Bisque Bye-lo Baby Grace S. Putnum Germany 18" long 14" head circumference | Designed by Grace Storey Putnam to resemble a 3-day old infant, the Bye-Lo Baby head mold was referred to as "The Million Dollar Baby" as it was the most popular in 1923-1924. This Bye-lo baby's exquisitely smooth creamy bisque head and hands are distinguished by expert modeling and fine painting of features. The base of the head is incised //Copr. By // Grace S. Putnam //Made In Germany// In near-mint condition - no damage and no repair -this baby has deep brown glass eyes, hand-painted facial features are deeply molded- include: bumpy-molded soft-brown hair with little paint rubs; delicate lashes and barely-there brows, cheeks are plump & rosy, wide flat nose and perfectly painted 2-tone closed pouty mouth. The vintage soft frog-body and clothing have been finely hand-crafted using vintage materials. Frog-body has swivel neck, floppy shoulders, and hips that ease into a sitting position. The very long antique-white Christening dress is made from finely detailed eyelet and trimmed with ribbon & lace; Underneath is a matching-lace-hemmed long slip, and flannel diaper; crocheted booties cover her feet; the matching lacy eyelet bonnet frames her precious face. Bye-lo baby is 18" inches long with a 14" head circumference. |
